

In order to gain the qualification, not only is it expected that you will attend the virtual/classroom-based training, but you will also complete the following:

Multi-

Detailed knowledge of:

The requirements of Assimilated Law 2017/625 on official feed and food controls as it applies to the delivery by officers of official feed controls, the Feed Law Code of Practice, associated Practice Guidance, centrally issued guidance and the FSA's National Enforcement Priorities, as part

Basic knowledge of:

The role of the Agricultural Analyst underpinning scientific assessment of feed safety and labelling and in optimising the use of analytical testing

Indicative areas of knowledge:

An overview of feed businesses and how they operate.

The status and role of the Food Standards Agency (FSA), Veterinary Medicines Directorate (VMD), Animal and Plant Health Agency (APHA) Local Authorities and other organisations including the role of the agricultural analyst when concerned with feed law.

Feed legislation and the Feed Law Code of Practice

Familiarisation of the registration and approval of feed business operators

An understanding of the roles and responsibilities for managing a feed safety incident.

Health and safety of enforcement officers during visits to holdings and other Premises

The bio-security precautions that are required by the industry and appropriate measures for biosecurity to be taken by Inspectors when visiting premises involved with primary production on farm.