

Qualifications Framework

Stage 2: Food

Written Examiner s Report May 2024 Cycle

The written food exam paper this year, as in previous years, tested candidates both on their knowledge of applicable food law and on how they would proceed with various scenarios.

These scenarios would include the use of various types of interventions, sanctions and criminal investigations. In line with the movement of food information regulation to make use of civil sanctions, the use of civil sanctions appeared in a number of questions.

Candidates appeared well versed in the use of these sanctions, whereas the scenarios involving the use of criminal sanctions were often less well answered.

Overall, the pass rate on this cycles written exam was high and reflects well on both the candidates` application and of support from their Services.

These questions were answered well by most candidates, demonstrating good knowledge of sampling, PPDS requirement, claims and QUID
