

Should I be a Corporate Affiliate Member ?

Corporate Affiliate Membership is for those businesses who can support and promote the aims, objectives and values of the Institute. Aimed at those who promote good business practices, are genuinely customer focused, empower knowledgeable consumers and staff and enable informed decision making and are part of a modern and vibrant economy.

Corporate Affiliate Membership

Our aims are to support, assist, inform and educate businesses and staff involved with regulatory practices, consumer protection and

Value of Membership to Your Business

- Enhances your business reputation and performance
- Raises your profile and promotes your company values within your industry and market sectors, which differentiates you from others in the market
- Promotes additional external recognition of your business as a champion of fair trading, consumer rights and ethical trading

• A free full delegate pass to the CTSI Symposium, Europe's premier consumer affairs event- A 10% off on professional skills and competency training for all your staff
- A free copy of our award-winning publication, an essential read for all members
- 15% off advertising space in our award-winning publication

• A free copy of our award-winning publication, an essential read for all members- 15% off advertising space in our award-winning publication

• A free copy of our award-winning publication, an essential read for all members- 15% off advertising space in our award-winning publication

• A free copy of our award-winning publication, an essential read for all members- 15% off advertising space in our award-winning publication

• A free copy of our award-winning publication, an essential read for all members- 15% off advertising space in our award-winning publication

• A free copy of our award-winning publication, an essential read for all members- 15% off advertising space in our award-winning publication

• A free copy of our award-winning publication, an essential read for all members- 15% off advertising space in our award-winning publication

• A free copy of our award-winning publication, an essential read for all members- 15% off advertising space in our award-winning publication

• A free copy of our award-winning publication, an essential read for all members- 15% off advertising space in our award-winning publication

To become a
Corporate Affiliate Member or for more information, contact
The Chartered Trading Standards Institute:

Sales and Business Development Executive
The Chartered Trading Standards Institute
1 Colindale Court

