

Our speakers have experience in a range of public speaking events, including party conference fringe sessions, discussing issues from across the trading standards and consumer protection landscape.

Sarah Caughey, Head of Policy

Sarah joined CTSI as Head of Policy in 2019.

She has background in legal studies and qualified as a solicitor prior to joining the trading standards